NSF Financial Interest Disclosure Form

NSF proposals and awards, under the BTC Media Labs Conflict of Interest Policy for NSF Awards (effective September 30, 2026)

This form is for investigators on NSF proposals and awards, including SBIR/STTR. For PHS/NIH grants, use the separate SFI Disclosure Form under the PHS FCOI Policy, which has different thresholds.

Return the completed form to the Designated Official at contact@btcmedialabs.com. BTC Media Labs keeps it in its own records. It is not sent to NSF.

Part 1. About you and the project

Investigator's name
Role (PI, co-PI, other)
NSF proposal or award number(s)
Project title(s)
Is BTC Media Labs applying under SBIR/STTR for this project?	☐ Yes ☐ No

Type of disclosure (check one):

- ☐ At proposal submission
- ☐ Annual, on or before January 31 each year during an award
- ☐ New interest, within 30 days of obtaining it

Part 2. What to disclose

Disclose every significant financial interest held by you, your spouse or your dependent children:

- i. that would reasonably appear to be affected by the NSF-funded, or proposed, research or educational activities; or
- ii. in an entity whose financial interests would reasonably appear to be affected by those activities.

A significant financial interest is anything of monetary value, including:

- salary or other payments for services (e.g., consulting fees, honoraria);

- equity (stock, stock options, private equity or other ownership interests);
- venture or other capital financing;
- intellectual property rights (patents, copyrights and royalties).

You do not need to disclose: - salary, royalties or other payments from BTC Media Labs; - ownership in BTC Media Labs, only if the project is an SBIR/STTR application; - income from seminars, lectures or teaching for public or non-profit entities; - income from advisory committees or review panels for public or non-profit entities; - equity that is both $10,000 or less in value and 5% or less ownership of the entity, combined for you, your spouse and dependent children; - payments of $10,000 or less over the prior 12 months, combined for you, your spouse and dependent children.

Part 3. Your significant financial interests

Do you, your spouse or your dependent children hold any significant financial interest described in Part 2? ☐ No. I have no significant financial interest to disclose. ☐ Yes. Details below, one row per interest. Attach extra pages if needed.

Entity	Nature of the interest (payments, equity, capital financing, IP)	Value, or % ownership	Held by (you / spouse / dependent child)	How it could be affected by the NSF work

Part 4. Certification

I certify that this disclosure is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that I must:

- update it at least annually, on or before January 31;
- disclose within 30 days any new significant financial interest I obtain during the award;
- follow any conditions BTC Media Labs sets to manage a conflict of interest.

Investigator's printed name	Signature	Date

For BTC Media Labs use only: Designated Official's review

Interest	Could be affected by the NSF work?	Could directly and significantly affect design, conduct or reporting? (conflict of interest)	Reasoning
	☐ Yes ☐ No	☐ Yes ☐ No

Outcome:

- ☐ No significant financial interest disclosed
- ☐ No conflict of interest
- ☐ Conflict of interest: managed, reduced or eliminated before funds are spent. Conditions recorded on the management plan template (Policy §7).
- ☐ Research proceeds without conditions; reasons documented. Inform NSF's Office of the General Counsel (Policy §8).
- ☐ Conflict cannot be managed. Inform NSF's Office of the General Counsel (Policy §8).

If the reviewer is also the disclosing investigator:

- ☐ Reviewed by the DO, with reasoning recorded above; or
- ☐ Reviewed by another designated officer (Policy §5)

Designated Official's signature	Date

Keep for at least three years beyond the end of the award, or until any NSF action involving these records is resolved, whichever is longer (Policy §10).
